Enabling every child to flourish in their potential as a child of God

Deputy Headteacher

Range: L8-L12 (Inner London)

Required for January 2015

Our friendly, caring and popular school is looking for an extremely enthusiastic and talented leader who will help to ensure that every child flourishes in their full potential.

If you:

- Are a qualified teacher with substantial experience of successful teaching within the primary school;
- Have substantial experience of leadership and management within a school coupled with evidence of your personal contribution to substantial school improvement;
- Are a person in sympathy with our Christian ethos;
- Have a strong sense of humour, likes a challenge and are willing to go above and beyond for our children.

We will:

- Provide the opportunity to work in a caring environment where everyone is committed to go above and beyond
- Support you with an energetic, dedicated and enthusiastic team
- Offer appropriate management time to fulfil your duties
- Give you the opportunity to develop your leadership skills and your career in education to the full

If you want to find out more, come and visit us (telephone to arrange a time) and then submit your completed application form (email preferred).

Closing date:
